Teacher play important role in our life to become successful in career and business. Choosing a profession is very important. Because, it decides our future. The choice should be based on our interest, not on the merit of the Academic. Each person have a genuine interest in teaching and therefore. We wish to be a Teacher. Any how interest along will not take we anywhere. We should acquire the academic qualification also to be a teacher. But, what is more important is the talent to teach. Teaching is not an easy job.

A student gets attracted to the subjects if the teacher who teaches that subject is talented. The student starts to hate the subject if the teaching is not so interested.

“TEACHING IS AN ART”

One must develop the qualities needed for a good teacher from one's school days itself. Teaching is the noblest of all profession. “A Teacher commands the respect of the society”. A good teacher is the greatest asset of a society. He mould a generation. No one else can influence young minds deeper. A good human being in the society and good citizen of the country. Teacher knows that student are the future of any nation. So, the future development of any nation is in the hands of teacher.

Teacher creates lessons plans and teach those plans to the entire class, individually to students or in small groups, track students progress and present the information to parents, create tests, create and reinforce classroom rules, work with school administration prepare students for standardized tests and manage.

“TEACHING AS A PROCESS”.

Teaching is fundamentally a process, including planning and teaching, implementation, evaluation and revision. Planning and teaching a class are familiar ideas to most instructors. Self-examination with feedback from your students and the instructor are key to improving our teaching.

In today's world teaching is a multi faced profession. Teachers often carry the roles of a surrogate parent, class disciplinarian, mentor, role model and many other related roles. Elementary school teachers play an important role in the development of students. Teacher was given a free hand to train his pupils in any method he pleased. The teacher of even a great king or a commoner had to follow all the guidelines set by the teacher.

From the early stages to the present time the relation between the students and teachers has changed due to many reasons, such as the relation with educational curriculum and teacher who practise accurate alienation of student. “The teacher is more a friend and facilitator than a tutor”. Children have the freedom to articulate their feelings. The teacher respect it and encourages self analysis to solve any blockages he feels in and outside the classroom. A positive thinking teacher will never drawback being afraid of obstacles. Every obstacle is an opportunity for growth and find a way out. As the child grows, the teacher takes a step back. So, that the child initiates new ideas to make his study productive. Both the teacher and the student must cross every chasm with awareness and introspections. 'Then the student will be great full that the teacher has helped him to gain insight of his development. What was very important was to serve the teacher with dedication and humanity. Both teachers and pupils were communion with nature.

Teaching experience is positively associated with student achievement gains throughout a teachers career. Teachers effectiveness increases at a greater rate when they teach in a supportive and collegial working environment and when they accumulate experience in the same grade level, subjects.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A TEACHER

The majority of teachers are primary and secondary school teachers. They generally choose a specific grade level or area of specialty in which to teach. Teachers are responsible for planning and then evaluating student performance. They are then responsible for promoting growth through providing additional assistance and meeting with parents and school staff to discuss student development and way to improve current teaching methods to better suit students.

It is important that they have a good sense of humour and the ability to think like their students. They must also be comfortable dealings wide variety of personality types and ability levels, while still treating all their students equally.

“I think teaching is the best profession.

Because,teacher often have a thankless job. Sometimes,when events gets to the extreme,teacher risk their own lives for the sake of their students. She hide her students in the cabinets of her classroom and sacrifice herself to keep students safe. Teachers influence all of us. Good teachers want to teach because of the positive impact their students can have on the world”.

“THE TEACHER WILL ALSO BE HAPPY
THAT THE STUDENTS HAS FRIENDLY
HOLD ON TO ONE RUNG OF THE LADDER OF SUCCESS”.
